

DEBORAH BUTERA

Deborah Butera is General Counsel & Secretary of Global Infrastructure Solutions Inc. (GISI), a multinational provider of construction management, engineering and consulting, and sustainability and impact services. Founded in 2016 by leading construction industry professionals, GISI facilitates ownership transitions for high quality firms, allowing them to take advantage of our experience, access to capital, and industry expertise. Through the dedicated efforts of our 14,000 employees, GISI generates annual revenue of approximately $13 billion and enjoys project backlog of more than $22 billion.

Prior to GISI, Ms. Butera was Senior Vice President, General Counsel & Secretary at The Kleinfelder Group, Inc., a multinational engineering and consulting firm, for five years and Senior Vice President, General Counsel & Secretary at Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc., a publicly traded multinational defense engineering, manufacturing, and critical infrastructure security solutions provider, for five years. Ms. Butera spent seven years as a law firm partner in private practice in Atlanta, where she served as Chair of the Atlanta Bar Association's Construction Law Section and served on the Board of the Atlanta Bar Association. Ms. Butera was recognized by the San Diego Business Journal as General Counsel of the Year in 2015. She is admitted to the Bars of Ohio and Georgia and registered in-house counsel in California.