

Susan Kuruvilla Bio:

Susan is a dynamic business strategist and coach with 20+ years of hands-on experience in both small & mid-market privately held and large public companies in either the CEO/President and/or CFO role. She brings a unique blend of financial, sales and operational skills to her passion of helping Executives grow as people and as leaders, which in turn will lead to growth of the companies they lead.

As a business coach, Susan accelerates the leadership growth executives need in these changing and challenging times. As a consultant, she partners with CEOs to create the growth strategies, leadership bench, performance culture and financial analytics that frees up time, money and energy to grow their businesses faster and have the life they want. As a Partner in Renaissance Executive Forums - San Diego, Susan works with CEOs in peer groups.

She also serves on the Board of a local company and chairs the Nomination Committee and is the Finance Chair for a tuition-free school, Nativity Prep Academy.

Susan worked in commercial lending for Heller Financial in Chicago, now owned by GE Capital, finance & supply-chain management with American Airlines in Dallas, and in San Diego - finance & executive leadership with Clark Security, now owned by Anixter International, and executive leadership with Managed Solution, an IT Services Company. She was a finalist in 2018 and 2017 for the San Diego Business Journal's Businesswomen of the Year.

Susan grew up in Wisconsin, graduated with a BBA-Finance from UW-Madison and an MBA from The Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College.
